

NEWS OF THE CLUBS

Mussey will address the meeting. Every local chapter is invited to send representatives.

The League of American Penwomen entertained the assistant secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Gordon Woodbury as guests of honor Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse. Mr. Woodbury addressed the assembly informally on the subject of the United States Navy and its inventions of vital interest. Mrs. Florence Parbury of London spoke of London clubs for the penwomen. Mrs. Henry Wilder Keyes presided at the meeting. A reception will be given at the clubhouse Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, with Miss Jane Manner, dramatic reader of New York as hostess.

Saturday evening of this week the league will give the first of the Saturday evening at homes, when the club will be turned over for members and their friends to meet for cards, games and dancing, if requested. The headquarters will be open every Saturday evening hereafter.

Mary Washington Chapter, D. A. R., met Tuesday at the Washington Club. A large number of chapter members were present. Miss Janet Richards, historian, made a short address. The election of delegates and alternates was held. Mrs. E. H. Jackson, regent; Miss Janet Richards, delegate; alternates, Miss Alice Solomon, vice regent; regent, alternate, Mrs. Morris D. Whickersham, Miss Dorinda Rogers, Mrs. David P. Ward, Mrs. Samuel C. Cornwall, Mrs. E. H. Thompson, Mrs. Frederick F. Johnson and Miss E. Josselyn Giffin.

The chapter will give a reception to the president general and national officers, as well as celebrate its twenty-ninth birthday anniversary in February. The date will be announced later.

Miss Janet Richards will give a morning lecture shortly for the benefit of the Continental Hall library fund, which she is working for. The chapter's next patriotic card party will be given January 20 at 2:30 o'clock.

The chapter has lost by death within a week two old and useful members. Mrs. Sanders Johnson, aged eighty-two, and widow of Gen. Sanders Johnson. She was the first genealogist of the National Society. D. A. R. and gave many years of her life to this work, having compiled twenty-two volumes on this subject. She was buried by the side of her husband in Arlington. The American flag draped the casket, with flowers from the National Society, as well as from her chapter, of which she was a charter member. The death of Miss Nettie Louise White came as a surprise to the chapter. Miss White was for many years chairman for the prevention of the desecration of the flag. Her casket also was draped with the American flag she had so long defended, and flowers from the chapter were sent.

The American Liberty Chapter, D. A. R., met Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jackson, when Mrs. James C. Lombard presided. Money was donated to the national society for the organization fund for Georgetown School for Foreigners. Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Mary Parks and Mrs. E. H. Thompson, Mrs. C. Clements contributed a musical program.

The Capitol Hill Club met Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis, with the presidency of A. E. Fryer, presiding. The author chosen for discussion was "Thomas Dixon." The principal talk was given by J. W. Davis. The first chapter of the composite story was read by Mrs. Blanche Tyler Beaton, the title being "The Mystery of the Midnight Express." The musical numbers were as follows: Vocal solos by Miss Huff; recitations by Miss Sheeley; readings by Miss Lawson and Mr. Selah; vocal solos by Miss Cecil Stale. Remarks were made by Miss Anna MacLaren Smith. J. W. Davis will write the next chapter of the composite story.

The Colonel John Donelson Chapter, D. A. R., met Tuesday at the Dewey Hotel, at which time all regular business of the society was transacted. Several matters of special importance came up for attention, among which was the resignation of Mrs. Robert P. Shealey as regent. Mrs. Edwin P. Geyer was appointed to complete the term. It was voted that each member contribute toward a chapter flag, the balance, if any, to be taken from chapter funds. This was followed by the Hoover Fund and for tickets to the Americanization ball were contributed by individual members. A delegate and several alternates were appointed to the congress to be held in April. After adjournment a social hour was spent.

The District of Columbia Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Association held its annual Council of presidents of associated organizations Tuesday at the Teachers' Club. At the morning session Mrs. William V. Smith gave a report on the efforts of her committee to secure better films for children. This was followed by an outline of the membership drive to be conducted under the direction of Mrs. L. D. Smoot, chairman of the district committee. A general discussion about school playground space, facilities and equipment was held. The discussion on playgrounds was concluded with a report by Mrs. J. B. L. Boone. The chapter will read a summary of the work done by the district conservation committee, in which it stated that seventeen complete outfits of clothes for school children had been furnished and 112 garments made and distributed during the past two months.

The speaker of the afternoon was Representative Clyde Kelley of Pennsylvania, who strongly advocated the District and a wider use for the schoolhouses.

The following committee on school playgrounds was appointed: Mrs. G. S. Rafter, Mrs. J. B. L. Boone, Mrs. Russ, Mrs. M. Ayres, Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Helbach, Mrs. Frank Ballou, Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, Mrs. L. D. Smoot, Mrs. J. N. Saunders and Mrs. H. W. Smith. The regular meeting of the congress will be held in the crystal room of the Euclid Hotel Tuesday at 2 p.m. There will be a talk on school sanitation.

The Woman's Club of Chevy Chase will meet Wednesday evening at the Chevy Chase, Md., school. Mrs. M. V. Ayers, an officer of the Progressive Educational Association, will speak of "Progressive Education in the Public Schools." All interested in educational matters are invited to attend.

The Capitol Hill History Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Fisher. A paper on "Trades Unionism of Today" was read by Mrs. F. F. Rourke, a former member. Mrs. A. J. McMillan and Mrs. J. B. Reed were elected to membership. The next regular meeting will be held January 26, with Mrs. C. B. Stoddard, 632 E. street northeast.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Caledonian Club installed its officers Wednesday night, as follows: President, Miss Essie Fraser; vice president, Mrs. Jean Robertson; recording secretary, Miss Margaret C. MacLaren; financial secretary, Mrs. Mary Dunlop; treasurer, Mrs. Agnes McGinty; chaplain, Mrs. Jane MacLaren, and chief of the club, Hugh Reid, was installing officer. Owing to the sudden death of the vice chief, John Higgins, the planned musical program was canceled. The annual Burns supper will be held January 25, at 7:45 p.m., at the Georgetown House. The committee in charge is composed of Alice Douglas, John Duncan, W. S. Crawford, Dave Black and William Grant. Meetings of the club are changed to the first and third Wednesdays of each month at Pythian Temple.

Columbia Heights Art Club held its current meeting at the home of Mrs. M. A. Winter, Miss Hill, president, in the chair. Mrs. J. D. Croissant gave the first paper, "Life at the Vatican," and a Tourist's Visit to the Pope. Discussions were followed by Mrs. Augustus Knight, who gave a talk descriptive of the famous paintings in the Vatican. Roll call was responded to by members with individual experiences in Rome.

The Anthony League will meet Wednesday from 3 to 5 o'clock at 2972 Columbia road, when Miss Myrtle Stinson will talk of her war experiences in France, and of the debt America owes to that nation. Mrs. Wayne B. Wheeler will have charge of the music. Mrs. Nanette L. J. Locher, chairman of the motion picture committee of the D. C. C. C., spoke on the service of the films at last Wednesday's meeting. Miss Lillian Williamson had the program in charge, and Miss Margaret Le Hayne played piano selections. Mrs. S. H. Cunningham and Mrs. Alfred Hardesty were admitted to membership.

Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey Tent, No. 1, D. of V., at its recent meeting in Grand Army Hall, held its annual installation exercises, at which time the installing officer was Miss Genevieve Spencer, and guide, Miss Hettie T. Warner. The elective officers were: President, Mrs. Hermione Sutton; senior vice, Miss Katie Guffos; junior vice, Mrs. C. A. Jensen; chaplain, Mrs. S. Quackenbush; treasurer, Miss J. Hamilton; patriotic instructor, Miss L. Bertie Milligan. Council—First member, Mrs. E. G. Clement; second, Mrs. H. T. Warner, and third, Mrs. S. Woltz. Appointive officers—Secretary, Mrs. Helen Temple; guide, Mrs. Mary M. Pauth; press correspondent, Miss M. E. McKenny; guard, Miss Albright, and assistant guard, Miss Helen Stone. Color bearers—First, Mrs. G. Murrell; second, Miss M. Maynard; third, Miss Lillian Gulton, and fourth, Miss Marie Arrington. Advisory council—Adj. Gen. O. H. Oldroyd, G. A. R.; commanders, J. Clinton Hyatt and Everett F. Warner, Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.

Mrs. Ella Grose Clements, the retiring president, was presented with a gold badge and complimented upon her success in increasing the tent membership and finances of the treasury during her term. Col. McElroy gave an address and there were recitations, music and refreshments.

Maple Butterscotch Pie.
Beat together one cup of sweet milk, one egg, one heaping tablespoonful of flour and a pinch of salt. Melt three-fourths of a cup of butter with one cup of grated maple sugar. Combine the two mixtures and cook the whole in a double boiler until it is thick. When it is cool pour it into a baked pastry shell and cover it with a meringue made of the stiffly beaten white of one egg, in which has been added one tablespoonful of maple syrup. Brown it in the oven and serve it cold.
